The NZ Crackup Tour features two of the best National and International comedians. They are out to prove that laughter is the best medicine

Medical science says that laughter produces chemicals in the body that relieve stress and enhance one's physical and mental health, thus the saying "laughter is the best medicine".

The NZ Crackup tour is your prescription for a good laugh – guaranteed.

On Friday 16th October the NZ Crackup Tour rolls into Samuels Summit Bar Methven.

Irishman Allan McElroy and Comedian Magician Jarred Fell are really looking forward to bringing the tour to the deep south. They are certainly not doctors, but they sure are funny and that's some medicine we could all do with right now.

Alan McElroy

A born and bred Irishman who now resides in New Zealand, Alan is a Comic, Actor and MC. Alan was recently nominated for Best MC at the NZ Comedy Guild Awards. He has performed at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, The Electric Picnic, to sell-out crowds in Australia, and received rave reviews at the NZ International Comedy Festival.

Jarred Fell

This Multi Awards Winning Adults' Comedian Magician has been making a name for himself worldwide for his extreme approach to Comedy and Magic.

Jarred is one of the most sought-after late show comics on the international circuit. He makes regular appearances on film and television with his comedy, magic, effects, misdirection, and sleight of hand. Jarred Fells show is truly unique and not to be missed.
